

A student who fails to meet their normative graduation milestone must apply for a degree program time extension. A student who is approved for a time extension must also submit an updated progress report at the beginning of each semester.

Please upload supporting documentation (2 pages maximum) to include:

Time Extension Requests:

- 1. An explanation for why a time extension is necessary
- 2. A proposed and detailed timeline for completing degree requirements
- 2. A supporting letter from the student’s advisor(s).

Progress Reports:

- 1. An updated student summary describing in detail the progress made since the extension was approved or since the last progress report was submitted
- 2. An updated and detailed timeline for completing degree requirements
